

Central Texas Graduation Rates

Data Courtesy of Diploma Count 2009

Diplomas Count 2009 contains the latest original analysis of high school completion conducted by the Editorial Projects in Education Research Center. The center calculates graduation rates for the nation, states, and every school district in the country using the Cumulative Promotion Index method and data from the U.S. Department of Education's Common Core of Data. The national graduation rate is 69.2%.

School district boundaries and borders depicted are estimates only and should not be used for official boundary purposes. Rates shown are calculated for the graduating class of 2006.